CAPTAIN DANIEL STONE INN'S No. 10 WATER RESTAURANT TO CELEBRATE NEW YEAR'S EVE IN GRAND STYLE

Brunswick, Maine – The Captain Daniel Stone Inn (www.captaindanielstone.com) will host a festive New Year's Eve Wine Tasting Dinner to be held at the Inn's on-site No. 10 Water Restaurant. The Inn, situated in Brunswick (southern midcoast Maine), also will be offering a specially priced New Year's Celebration Package for those opting for an overnight getaway.

The New Year's Eve Wine Tasting Dinner, to kick off with a 6 pm sparkling wine and local artisan cheese board reception, will be held on Friday, December 31 in the newly renovated dining room at No. 10 Water. The five-course meal, to begin at 6:30 pm, will be accompanied by specially selected wine pairings, tailored to each course. Attendance will be capped at 100 guests; the price per person is $65 (excluding tax/gratuity). To make reservations, call (207) 373-9299 or (877) 373-2374.

The chef's menu for the evening will feature Maine Winter Point Oysters paired with King Estate Acrobat Pinot Gris; Crisp Duck Breast Salad paired with Bridlewood Viognier; Lobster Cocktail paired with La Marouette Rosé; a Cold River Vodka Lemon Sorbet Intermezzo; Peppered Roasted Beef Tenderloin paired with David Bruce Petite Syrah; and a House-made Chocolate Caramel Tart paired with Quady Elysium, a blackberry dessert wine.

"We had a fantastic night serving 200 people at No. 10 Water for Thanksgiving this year, and are already looking forward to hosting 100 guests for our New Year's Eve Wine Tasting Dinner," noted No. 10 Water Executive Chef Troy Mains.

For New Year's "Overnighters":

In addition to the New Year's Eve Wine Tasting Dinner, The Captain Daniel Stone Inn is offering a very price-friendly New Year's Celebration Package.

The overnight package ($250 for two guests, excluding tax/gratuity) includes an overnight stay for two at the Inn, a reservation for two at the Inn's New Year's Eve Wine Tasting Dinner and sparkling wine reception, a welcome plate of fresh-baked cookies and petit fours, and a New Year's Day continental breakfast spread.

As always, the Inn's premium guest rooms, luxurious bed linens and bath amenities, attentive customer service, and spacious indoor hot tub, sauna and gym all will be readily available for overnight guests.

About the Captain Daniel Stone Inn and No. 10 Water Restaurant

The Captain Daniel Stone Inn (www.captaindanielstone.com), an historic property in Brunswick, Maine, enjoys a vibrant spot in the area’s dining, travel and social scene. The property’s original, early-19th-century home was built for Captain Daniel Stone – a U.S. Navy veteran and successful Maine merchant – and his family in 1819. This beautiful, Federal-style home has been expanded to include an additional 24 guest rooms, a top-tier restaurant and tavern, and versatile event facilities. Welcoming and spacious guestrooms and suites, featuring custom furnishings, plush linens and upscale bath amenities, provide guests with a luxurious home-away-from-home experience. The Inn’s alluring southern Midcoast Maine location, coupled with its well-equipped event facilities and meeting rooms, also make it an ideal choice for weddings, corporate gatherings, and special events.

The Inn’s two dining areas in its popular, on-site No. 10 Water Restaurant are a big draw to locals and travelers alike. The restaurant’s fireside tavern features fine wines, microbrews and spirits along with creative pub fare. In the restaurant’s comfortable dining room, guests can cozy up to the fireplace, watch the chefs in the nearby open kitchen, and enjoy a first-rate selection of seasonal dishes. No. 10 Water, awarded 3 ½ stars by The Portland Press Herald, frequently hosts creative wine and beer dinners, special community events, and holiday festivities throughout the year.
