

Alumni Successes – Where are they now?

Profiles of Ottawa Alumni Jennifer Beltz and Thomas Householder

Jennifer Beltz and Thomas Householder attended Le Cordon Bleu Ottawa for cuisine in 2005.

"We're both certain that many of the valuable lessons we took away from Le Cordon Bleu helped us gather and maintain several of the restaurant, food and spirits PR clients we have today. We launched our boutique PR and Marketing firm, Front Burner PR (www.frontburnerpr.com), based in Portland, Maine, shortly after finishing at Le Cordon Bleu," Jen noted.

"We can't say enough good things about the top-notch training and learning experience we enjoyed at Le Cordon Bleu Ottawa, and tell all of our friends and biz associates how highly we think of the program," Thom added. "Great chefs, challenging curriculum, and a first-rate experience overall during our time spent at the Le Cordon Bleu Paris program in Ottawa."

